

One of the best magazine series in years is the Saturday Evening Post's articles on American cities which, in this week's issue, dwells on Little Rock.

It's a favorable report not only on the capital city but the whole state of Arkansas.

Spearheading the report is a long list of new industries that Little Rock has acquired since the war, and all through the article is the conclusion that no state has been more jolted with less truth than the Bear State.

While it reminds me: When we go to repeat that awful designation "Wonder State" that unfortunate legislature hung around our neck during World War and get back to the designation the original pioneers gave Arkansas—the Bear State.

Meanwhile, thanks to the State-post—where a thousand words are all kind ones.

Memo to Mayor Albert Fink: Okeh, so it's the county and state trucks that are tearing up the proving ground roads—not the city's vehicles. The city was in there upon a time, but now the report says it's the county and state. Now that I've gotten into the business of who's going to fix the roads that everybody uses I have a feeling I'm going to hear more about who's going to do some work.

Robert Magidoff, U.S. news correspondent who was kicked out of Russia, says the common people of that country aren't talking about war.

But in a dictatorship you don't talk about anything if you want to remain in one place—and the information he brings back to us is worthless.

Contrast the case of the silent Russians with that of the stalwart Swiss.

When Hitler was swaggering around the Swiss border the chief of staff of the little republic's armed forces called an emergency meeting of statesmen and industrialists to discuss the situation. "We will fight," said the Swiss. "We will fight," said the Swiss. "We will fight," said the Swiss.

At the time Hitler had made up his mind to attack, the Swiss refused—and this is another illustration why Switzerland has remained independent and free longer than any nation except the English.

Palestine Trusteeship Scheme Reveals U.S. Inconsistencies
By JAMES THRASHER

The tentative scheme for carrying out the American proposal for a trusteeship over Palestine aroused no notable enthusiasm. But, unfortunately, it did emphasize the inconsistency of this government's switch in policy.

One of the most interesting points of the tentative plan was the disclosure that the United States favors an international force to keep order in Palestine, under the trusteeship that it now advocates. It seems safe to assume, from the guarded wording of Mr. Austin's statement, that the American government would be willing to include its own troops in such a force.

The statement pointedly did not say that this force would be used to enforce trusteeship. Yet, if UN troops were to be used to put down disorder arising from opposition to trusteeship, the difference between enforcing order and enforcing trusteeship would be one of words rather than of action.

The UN Trusteeship Council, which Russia is boycotting, would set up the Palestine government. It would be headed by a governor general authorized to call upon "such states as would be prepared to enter the agreement" to help maintain order. Doubtless, the U. S. would be hoping that the Soviet Union is named as a permanent member of the trusteeship council by the UN Charter. Its representatives can enter the council's discussion any time it chooses. Furthermore, the use of any international force in Palestine would need the approval of the veto-armed Security Council.

Thus it might work out that American and Russian vetoes would cancel each other, and the UN force would be made up of troops from smaller nations.

But, if such force could be set up to keep peace under the trusteeship, then why not under partition? The Arabs oppose partition. Both sides are opposed to trusteeship. What, then, is the advantage of the latter?

The Arabs refuse to consider either an independent Jewish government or further Jewish immigration. The Jews promise to give up their national homeland by the League of Nations and independence by the United Nations. Do not want to become a minority group under an Arab government. There is little hope of voluntary compromise in this situation.

The classic argument against partition is that "Palestine belongs to the Arabs." The Moslems grabbed the country from Christianity in 637 and regained it from the Crusaders, then controlled it as a part of the Turkish Empire for 400 years. But there never was an independent Arab Palestine. The country no more "belonged" to the residents Arabs than it did to the Jews, who have lived there since the dawn of time.

3 Business Houses Burns at Fordyce Loss Is $70,000

Fordyce, April 22 — (P)—Two separate fires here today destroyed three business establishments with losses estimated by the owners at $70,000.

A grocery store and tire store were destroyed in the main business section about 1 a. m. Approximately 40 minutes later a sandwich shop on the eastern outskirts of the city burned.

Causes of the fires were undetermined.

3 Clues to Shooting of Reuther

Detroit, April 22 — (UP)—Three footprints, a shotgun shell wadding and a description of the getaway car were the only clues police had today to the would-be assassin of Walter P. Reuther, chief of the CIO United Auto Workers.

Police Commissioner Harry S. Toy said that he hoped the $117,800 in rewards that have been offered for capture of the attacker would turn up some new leads.

Toy said a study of plaster casts of the footprints found outside the kitchen window of Reuther's cottage indicated three men may have taken part in the attempt on the life of the 40-year-old auto workers president Tuesday night.

Toy said one man fired the blast through the window, a second acted as lookout and a third drove the late-model maroon Ford four-door sedan used in the escape.

Police scientists also were studying the wadding of the shotgun shell in hope of tracing the assailant by finding where he purchased the ammunition.

Dr. Raymond A. Sokolov, who removed four shotgun pellets from Reuther's right arm and operated on a less serious chest wound, said he was certain the arm would not have to be amputated.

However, the doctor said it was not yet determined if the radial nerve in the arm had been damaged. "If it was," Sokolov said, "he may never have the full use of this arm again."

The largest single reward offered was $100,000 by the UAW's international executive board. The Detroit city council voted $10,000. The AFL Teamsters Union offered $5,000. The Michigan CIO Council and the Michigan Communist party voted $500 and the Wayne county CIO Council $100. Various other UAW locals brought the total to $117,800.

Toy said he had received a telephone call from Gen. Homer Ferguson, R. Mich., who promised to ask the Federal Bureau of Investigation to assign agents to the case.

The police have been receiving scores of calls from persons who have spotted cars similar to the one used by the gunman. Toy said each lead is being carefully tracked down.

Reuther was shot down in the kitchen of his home while eating a late-night meal with his wife, Mae, and their two children, Linda, 5, and Elizabeth Ann, eight months, who were sleeping. Linda was told later that her father "cut his arm" on the smashed window.

The scrappy, slightly-built labor leader never lost consciousness after being hit. However, he was unable to provide any clues that would lead to the identity of his assailant.

One UAW leader told police that there had been "real bitterness" between the UAW and the CIO United Electrical Workers Union which had accused Reuther of raiding the UEW for members.

Meatless Tuesday Is Dropped

Washington, April 22 — (P)—The government today dropped "meatless Tuesday"—remember it!—but in a new appeal for food conservation called upon people to observe a meatless day of their own choice.

The "Meatless Tuesday" campaign was started last fall by a Citizens Food Committee headed by Soap Manufacturer Charles L. McKelvey.

The new conservation appeal was made by the Agriculture Department—the agency which took over the Luckman committee activities early this year.

The department said there still is need for food saving by both families and public eating places. Proper conservation can do much, it said, to check rising food prices, to help build new food reserves, and to make supplies available for hungry areas abroad.

To help families cooperate, the department is offering for free distribution 2,500,000 copies of a new book entitled "Money-saving meat dishes." It contains 159 recipes which, the department said, point the way for saving perhaps a third in the family meat budget alone.

Air Force Will Use New Titles

Washington, April 22 — (P)—The air force has chosen titles for its "men" to distinguish them from army enlisted personnel.

The new ratings would be authorized under pending legislation. For warrant officers there would be four grades—chief airman and senior airman, 1st, 2nd and 3rd class. A chief airman would receive pay equivalent to that of a major. It would range down to a 2nd lieutenant's pay for senior airman, 3rd class.

Here is how the air force proposes to re-name the grades for enlisted men: Master sergeant becomes senior air sergeant; technical sergeant, air sergeant, 1st class; staff sergeant, air sergeant; sergeant, airman 1st class; corporal, airman 2nd class; private first class, airman 3rd class; private, airman 4th class.

AP Dispatch From United Nations 3 Years Ago Sounds Like Today's Red Quarrel

by James Marlow
Washington, April 21 — (P)—An Associated Press story said: "The United States delegation gave every indication of standing tighly against any further concessions to Russia on major controversies of the United Nations."

"Apparently backed to the hilt by President Truman, some of the U. S. delegates let it be known in public and off-the-record conversations that they believe this country has gone far enough in attempting to satisfy the Soviets."

Sound familiar? Sounds like something that was written today, or yesterday or last week. But it wasn't.

It was written in San Francisco April 25, 1945, the day the Allies opened their first meeting there to create the United Nations to keep peace.

The argument that day was over Russia's demand for three votes in the U. N. General Assembly, whenever it was formed.

This country has made some concessions to Russia since that day in 1945. But what was written that day by an AP reporter in San Francisco has now become the foreign policy of this country.

The policy is: No more concessions to Russia. It's policy backed by President Truman and Congress.

Next Sunday, April 25, is the third anniversary of the opening of the San Francisco Conference to create the U. N.

Russia Posts New Demands on the West

Rome, April 22 — (P)—Premier Alcide de Gasperi hotly denied today Communist charges that the anti-Communist victory in the Italian Parliamentary elections was the product of corruption and coercion.

Addressing a news conference of nearly 300 foreign newspaper correspondents, de Gasperi called a statement made earlier by Communist Leader Palmiro Togliatti "a very grave accusation."

In the last eight years he said the Italian Communist group, which carried Togliatti's charges, lay before him on the table.

Gasperi, looking rested and relaxed, dealt first with Togliatti's assertion that the election results had been influenced by "foreign intervention" in the form of a threat to let Italy starve if the Communists won.

"The regulations" said prevent a repetition of accidents like the April 5 crash here between a British Viking transport and a Soviet Yak-3 fighter. The collision killed 12 British, two Americans and the Russian pilot.

The Russian report, which took up a full page in the official Soviet newspaper Tagesspiegel Rundschau, blamed a British violation of air safety regulations for the accident. It said the British should be made to pay indemnities for the plane and to the dead pilot's family.

The British already had held their own investigation, blamed the Russians for the crash and said they would ask indemnities. Efforts to reach agreement were continuing.

Leader of Georgia Gang Found Dead

Atlanta, Ga., April 22 — (UP)—The silver-haired "black raider" who admitted that he and two other accused floggers were members of the Ku Klux Klan was found dead in his home here last night, a gaping shotgun wound in his side.

A coroner's inquest was scheduled for 8 a. m. (EST) today to determine the cause of his death. Police indicated that it appeared to be suicide.

S. C. Keheley, 58-year-old utility company lineman, was found dead in his bedroom, a 12-gauge repeater shotgun lying by his side. Under indictment for two night floggings carried out by the "black raider," Keheley was free under $1,000 bond at the time of his death.

Relatives found two scribbled notes, barely legible, in the Keheley home, apparently left by the Klansman before his death.

They said in part: "I can't stand to go on like this. I have never sworn to a lie. I have always tried to do the best I can by everybody. This is the only way I know out."

One note named someone as "a good feller," but the name was illegible.

Keheley was under indictment for the floggings of Joe Berry and Roy Gravit, having been arrested last Thursday as he fled the scene of the Berry whipping. He was accused in another threatened lashing.

Following the Berry whipping he admitted to police that he was a Klansman and named two other members of the flogging party as Klansmen. He also named two "black raiders" allegedly flogged Berry because "he was drinking too much and wasn't supporting his wife and child."

2 Executed in Hitch-Hike Murder Case

Nashville, Tenn., April 22 — (UP)—Two youthful confessed murderers died calmly in the electric chair here this morning for the January 1947 hitch-hike murder of Edward Sprouse, Clarksville, Tenn. town doctor.

James Sandusky, 20, Nashville, died first, going to the chair at 5:20 a. m. CST, and being pronounced dead three minutes later. John Thomas Kelley, 21, Marion, Ill., followed ten minutes later and was pronounced dead at 5:35.

Deputy Warden Webb Williams said that both men went quietly to the chair without great emotion or any loss of nerve.

A plan to give their eyes for operations to restore sight to blind men was exacted from them. Williams said that both men were voluntarily to remove them for expression to New York, according to the men's lawyer, Wiley C. Wilson, Jr.

Sandusky and Kelley were convicted at Centerville, Tenn., for the Sprouse murder last year. They had been convicted of a court with a share of no par value capital stock. Incorporators were Barney Dunlap, Edith Dunlap and C. B. Crumpler.

FIRM INCORPORATES
Little Rock, April 22 — (P)—Barney Dunlap and Co., El Dorado, today filed articles of incorporation as oil and gas drillers.

The Irish Do Work Together Sometimes: Boyle Interviews a Fellow AP Correspondent

By HAL BOYLE
New York — Wes Gallagher lives in what he calls the world's biggest air-conditioned prison.

The prison is Berlin, Germany. Gallagher believes that today it is the keystone of American prestige in Europe and that the Russian is now "newspaperman."

The tension has died down a little, he said. "Only 50 of the 2,500 American dependents have asked to go home."

The trouble is that the Russian leaders have told their people so often that they won the war, so often that they've come to believe in their own propaganda.

"Allied diplomats there don't believe the Russians want war now, but they're afraid the Russians don't know how to stop short of war."

"The Russians are still determined to get us out of Berlin. They probably will make another attempt after they get the harvest in. They want to have a free hand by the October elections, however, to be able to deal with the 2,000,000 Berliners who voted against communism last time."

"If we let the Russians run us out of town, our prestige in Europe will collapse. No European country would be willing to put up a fight."

How long could the present American garrison in Berlin hold out if some "incident" precipitated war?

"Perhaps six hours," he said. "But they might be important hours."

Just before Wes took off on his return flight to Berlin I asked him if covering eight years of world struggle had taught him anything.

"Only that nothing is more important than human freedom," he said.

U.S. Steel Rejects Wage Hike Demand; Cuts Steel Prices

Pittsburgh, April 22 — (P)—The U. S. Steel Corp. today denied a wage increase demanded by the CIO United Steelworkers and announced price cuts totaling almost $25,000,000 for its products.

The price cuts are effective May 1.

Phil Murray, president of the CIO and the steelworkers' union, asserted the corporation had denied "a just and much needed wage increase." His statement emphasized, however, that the union would continue to live up to a no-strike pledge in a two-year contract, reopened for wage discussion.

Benjamin F. Fairless, steel corporation president, declared the specified wage increase had been denied and the price cuts effected "in an effort to halt further inflation."

The union leader declared in a statement: "We charge that the corporation has not negotiated in good faith on the wage issue. We contend that the corporation has not given adequate consideration to the immediate and pressing needs of its steel worker employees. We assert that it has not recognized the increase in the cost of living which has occurred."

The union and corporation have been negotiating since April 5 on unspecified wage increase demands. The negotiations covered union workers in all major U. S. Steel producing subsidiaries, including Carnegie Illinois, National Tube, American Steel & Wire, Tennessee Coal, Iron & Railroad.

Murray renewed a pledge that the union will "stand up to the present two-year, no-strike contract. The pact does not expire until next spring but contains a clause which permits wage provisions to be reopened."

"We will live up to that contract," Murray declared. "We leave to the forum of public opinion whether corporation's professions are borne out by adamant and unjustified refusal to grant an equitable wage increase."

A CIO spokesman said the negotiations with U. S. Steel "on this point (wages)" could be considered as broken off.

Williams Out of Campaign, Paper Says

Little Rock, April 22 — (P)—The Arkansas Democrat said today it had learned Attorney General Guy E. Williams was withdrawing from the gubernatorial race.

Williams would neither deny nor confirm the report. He said he expected to have a statement late today.

The Democrat said "Williams is removing from the race to announce for the second division, Pulaski Chancery Court."

The Arkansas Supreme Court held Monday that the second Pulaski Chancery was a court with a share of no par value capital stock. Incorporators were Barney Dunlap, Edith Dunlap and C. B. Crumpler.

Lewis May Delay Start of Pensions

Washington, April 22 — (P)—John L. Lewis today postponed a monthly welfare fund trustee meeting until Monday when his $100 monthly miners pension plan ran into a court challenge.

Washington, April 22 — (P)—John L. Lewis today was reported leaning toward a delay in starting his $100 a month miners' pension plan in the face of blunt notice he might have to pay the bill himself.

Sources close to the mine leader said it is doubtful an afternoon ruling by the federal court (welfare fund trustees) will be held as scheduled.

Lewis presumably called the conference to adopt rules and regulations for paying $100 monthly pensions from the still untapped $52,000,000 welfare fund.

The report of a possible delay in pensions came as soft coal diggers steamed back to the pits in answer to Lewis' return-to-work call. Field estimates showed about 200,000 miners going back to work. This brought the number on the job to about 330,000 of a total of 400,000 miners.

Persons close to Senator Styles Bridges (R-N.H.) and Ezra Van Horn, pension fund trustees along with Lewis, echoed reports today's meeting probably would be put off.

Bridges is the neutral trustee, while Van Horn represents the operators.

Van Horn served notice yesterday that Lewis and Bridges might be personally liable for any money spent from the fund under a plan Lewis and Bridges approved. Van Horn made request in a court suit in which he claimed the plan is illegal.

The Lewis-Bridges pact would provide $100 monthly pensions to

Legion Is Involved in Fraud Charge

Los Angeles, April 22 — (UP)—A member of the American Legion's seven-man National Housing Committee was named today in a 53-count GI housing fraud indictment.

A federal grand jury said Richard M. Vail, 32, and two other men, all former army and navy officers living in Fresno, Cal., sold homes in a $500,000 Fresno venture and housing project at from $1,500 to $1,800, probably Federal Housing Administration prices.

The indictment, returned yesterday, also named William C. Albany, 30, foreman of last year's Fresno county grand jury, and 60 real estate salesman Wade J. Howells, 35.

The three were charged with conspiring to sell the 55 houses in the tract over the maximum prices fixed by the FHA in application for priorities and with concealing the FHA prices from the veterans.

The indictment also charged that the houses failed to meet the plans and specifications.

Fayetteville Vote Contest Hearing Put Off for Time

Fayetteville, April 22 — (P)—The scheduled hearing on a dismissal motion in the Fayetteville municipal judge election contest was postponed indefinitely today.

Circuit Judge Maupin Cummings said he probably would set the date for hearing next Monday when his court opens here.

The motion to dismiss the contest was filed by Paul Jameson.

The contest was filed by V. James Plank, whose bid for election was spoiled when Jameson was declared the winner in the democratic primaries preceding the recent city general election.

Jameson asked the Arkansas Supreme Court earlier this week to prohibit Circuit Judge Maupin Cummings from hearing the contest suit, but the high court refused to do so.

FRESH BLOOD A MUST FOR FREE ENERGY

Do you feel like you are tied to a drag every time you try to do something? If so, don't let a low blood count hold you down when you may release vibrant energy to every muscle fibre.

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloating and give off that sour food taste.

Don't wait. Energize your body with rich red-blood. Start on SSS Tonic now. As vigorous blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better, have a healthy color glow in your skin—run fresh all out hollow places. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle today. SSS Tonic helps build sturdy health.

toward a joint investigation had failed.

The latest Russian move came as some top American officials said they believe the Russian intend to kill Berlin's Allied Kommandantura meetings be scheduled only from one session to the next, rather than the customary month in advance.

"That would give them an excuse to reduce the number of meetings by claiming they could not show up," one American official commented today. "The result might be first a crippling process and then — through a creeping paralysis or whenever they were ready to make the break — killing the Kommandantura altogether."

The strike was called by the International Brotherhood of Paper Makers during a dispute involving checkoff of union dues.

The company agreed to use only the gate at the plant when the court confined the picketing to a single entrance.

Approximately 125 employees were affected by the strike. There was no announcement how many workers returned to work today.

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Chicago, April 22 —(P)—Grains dropped today on news that rains had come overnight to the parched lands of the winter wheat belt. Wheat led the decline, but corn and oats also were down substantially at times. Toward the close extreme losses were reduced.

Wheat was down more than 5 cents at the opening. Lowest prices were made within the first few minutes of dealings. Feed grains weakened on news Canada would permit exports of oats and barley for animal, as well as human consumption.

There was some buying in wheat late in the day from the southwest. Wheat closed 4 3-4-1-4 lower. May $2.47 1-2-$2.48 1-2, corn was 1-2-5-4 lower, May $2.21 1-2-$2.22, oats were 1 3-4 to 5 cents lower, May $1.12 1-4, and soybeans were 1-2 to 8 cents lower, May $4.04.

Wheat was not for sale in the cash trade today, but prices were quoted sharply lower with futures anyhow; basis was unchanged; receipts two cars. Corn was down with the futures; basis unchanged; bookings 23,000 bushels shipping sales 20,000 bushels; receipt 65 car. Oats were two to four cents lower; basis unchanged to two cents less; shipping sales 50,000 bushels; receipts 16 cars. Soybeans receipts were three cars.

NEW YORK COTTON

New York, April 22 —(P)—Cotton futures were easy in moderately active dealings today under the influence of May liquidation, commission house profit taking and hedging. Losses extended to $3.00 a bale before the market recovered with old crop deliveries firm on mill buying and short covering. Selling was influenced partly by technical reason following the recent sharp advance.

Futures closed $1.15 to $1.55 a bale lower than the previous close. May high 38.92 — low 38.41 — last 38.00 off 23.

Jly high 38.11 — low 37.58 — last 37.74 off 25-31.

Pope Pius Gratified by Italian Vote

Rome, April 22 —(U)—Pope Pius XII said today that the Italian election results "quickened the confidence of all Europe and the whole world."

The pope's statement was made originally in a special audience given by the prelate to Hugh Baillie, president of the United Press and Mrs. Baillie, and representatives of other American press associations.

Myron Taylor, President Truman's special envoy to the Vatican, released the statement today.

The pope said that the elections marked a "crucial moment" which caused people all over the world to turn to God "with the prayer that he come to the defense of his cause against error and injustice."

The pope said he himself had been saddened in this crucial period "by the spectacle of so many who in their egotism or blindness stubbornly hold to a path that can lead only to disaster for the soul and body alike."

Baillie said the pontiff had appeared extremely pleased and happy as he made his statement during the audience which he gave only a few hours after he had stayed up until 1 a. m. Tuesday to hear the returns which established a definite anti-Communist trend.

He received the group, which included Kingsbury Smith, general manager of International News Service, Charles Gupitell, United manager for Associated Press and their wives, and members of Taylor's staff, in his private office in the papal library.

The text of the statement he made to them follows:

"His excellency, Mr. Myron Taylor, just told us of your desire to be received by us, and we hasten to assure you of a very hearty welcome to Rome and to our own Vatican city."

"You have just witnessed the passing of a day that will be memorable in the annals of Italian history."

"An entire people have given proof of their grave sense of civic duty, and the skies of Italy are bright with the hope of the tranquility of order which will make possible and should hasten the material and social reconstruction of the country so necessary if justice is to be done for all, especially of the working man and the unemployed."

Negro Convict Is Relinquished to Oklahoma Courts

Little Rock, April 21 —(P)—A negro who has served nearly 12 years in the Arkansas penitentiary will be "released" early next month—only to face trial in another state.

He is Jonas Fitzpatrick, 38, who was sentenced in 1936 from Phillips county to serve 18 years for burglary and robbery.

Fitzpatrick pleaded guilty to robbing and slugging a merchant at Alexis, Ark.

Governor Loney today signed a requisition for Fitzpatrick's transfer to Tallulah, La., where he faces a charge of Robbing J. L. Davis, agent of the Tri-State bus company, Jan. 19, 1938, shortly before the Phillips county robbery.

of fractions to around 2 points.

The market got off to a rapid opening, calmed down a bit at slightly lower levels, and then surged ahead in the final few minutes of trading.

Orders poured into the floor of the exchange at such a rate that the high-speed ticker tape dropped behind a minute or two both in the first and last out of dealings.

News of U. S. Steel Corp.'s $25,000,000 price reduction, and the corporation's refusal to advance wages, hit the market by surprise but failed to budge it from its price course. Steel common closed 50 cents a share higher at $77.87 and most other steel issues showed similar improvement.

Bonds hardened.

McFaddin, Aged 79, to Marry 42-Year Old Grandmother

Miami Beach, Fla., April 20 —(UP)—Bernard MacFadden, 79-year-old crusader for health and beauty who is also campaigning for governor of Florida, today planned to wed a beautiful, blonde 42-year-old grandmother.

He announced yesterday that he will marry Jonnie Lee, New York interior decorator who has been lecturing for a "long, long time" on lasting youth, beauty and power "and" under the auspices of the Bernard MacFadden Health Foundation.

MacFadden and Miss Lee applied for a marriage license here yesterday. They said they would be married in a church wedding here Friday.

The white-haired advocate of the body beautiful, who will be 80 in August, said his marriage would not interfere with his active campaign for Florida's governorship.

"I can handle both of them," he said.

Miss Lee is the mother of two children and has one grandchild. She said MacFadden asked her to marry him a month ago and she returned to say yes last week.

"I guess I touched off an ideal he had of the type of woman he

Van Horn said the plan is illegal under the Taft-Hartley Labor Act for two main reasons:

1. Bridges never had any legal right to vote on how the money is to be spent, because the law says the employer representative is the one to do the agreeing — and Van Horn disagreed to the Lewis-Bridges plan.

2. The reason he disagreed to it was that it would pay pensions to miners for whom no contributions have been made to the fund. He said this, too, is barred by law.

Then he took up the charges, made by Togliatti, that there had been improper intervention by the church in the election campaign.

The church's role in the political battle, he said, was in the moral and spiritual field, outside the province of the government.

"The conscience is free," he added, "and eight million persons (who supported the Popular Front) voted as they saw fit without suffering any moral limitation."

On the other hand, he said, there were 18,000,000 who voted against the Communist-dominated front and who, the premier said, presumably were considered by Togliatti persons "without judgment."

Ronald Reagan and Wife, Jane Wyman, Are Reconciled

Fields Found Guilty at Booneville

Booneville, April 22 —(P)—Grover Fields was convicted today of being an accessory after second degree murder and sentenced to six years imprisonment.

Fields had been tried on a first degree murder charge. The jury recommended the sentence. The jury resumed deliberations today after failing to reach a decision in two hours yesterday.

Fields was charged in connection with the fatal stabbing of Earl Hornsby, 44, an employee of the state sanatorium, the night of last Jan. 17.

Recently convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment for first degree murder in Hornsby's death was Roy Capes, also of Booneville. Witnesses at trials of both Capes and Fields testified that Hornsby was stabbed by Capes.

and he has returned home.

The Regans were married Jan. 26, 1940, and have two children, Maureen, seven, and Michael, three.

The Innocent Impostor

By Renee Shann COPYRIGHT BY RENEE SHANN; DISTRIBUTED BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: After the party, Dwight and Roger take the twins home to Charlotte's flat. Roger tells Patience he'll be seeing her. She asks questions. Patience about Paul. Roger leaves the story, she calls Patience a nunny for not standing up to her aunts, advises her to try and win him back. Patience should either write Paul or waylay him on the train.

Patience slept on this advice. And awoke the next morning determined to take it. If Paul wasn't on the usual train then she'd wait and see if he was traveling down by a later one. She would go right up to him as he came along the station platform and tell him she wanted to talk to him. She would say: "I know it was my fault. I'm right. I should have stood up to my aunts and insisted I was going on seeing you. Well, I'm going to now. I care what they say. I'm so terribly in love with Roger, and I'm so utterly miserable without you that nothing else in the world matters."

As the day wore on she realized how uncertain she felt that such a scene might really take place. Fifty things might prevent it. Paul might be with the blonde. She might hardly butt in on him then. Or he might be with some other friends. Or he might just cut her dead and refuse to have a word to say to her. Or there might be Roger Dickson—

There was indeed Roger Dickson. She saw him the moment she came out of the building with Peggy. And was astonished to find that until that moment she'd forgotten that he'd said he'd be meeting her. Peggy gasped, her eyes round as gooseberries.

"Patience, that's—why surely it is. Want to meet him?" "Peggy gave a little excited squeak. "I'll say I do."

Patience strolled over to where he stood waiting for her beside his lone, low, gleaming car. "Hello, Roger." "Hello, darling! How are you after last night's dissipation?" "I'm grand, Peggy, this is Roger Dickson. Roger—Peggy Cooper."

Peggy gave a high-pitched giggle. "I was ever so thrilled when I found out that Patience knew you," she gushed.

Roger acknowledged her enthusiasm with a courtly bow. "The pleasure is mine, Miss Cooper," he said.

possible. "I think you're sweet, Roger," she said, utterly without guile. "That's the way I feel about you. Listen, next time you're up, could you perhaps go back on a later train?"

She thought of Paul and her determination to do all she could to put things right between them. "I don't know. Can't we sort of leave things as they are? I'll be running into you some time."

"You certainly will." They passed through the barrier. Patience looked anxiously at the crowded carriages as they walked up the train, searching for a seat. Paul wasn't in any of them. But the blonde was hanging out of one of the windows. She too, no doubt, was looking out for him. And it was in a carriage next to hers that Roger found a corner seat for Patience.

Here's a piece of luck. Grab it before someone else does. She put her gloves, and the magazines he'd bought her, down on it, and stepped out again onto the platform. She looked up at the clock to see that in another moment, now the train would be leaving. She thought: "Paul isn't going to be on it. I shan't see him. I shan't be able to try to explain about last night."

And then at that moment she saw him hurrying through the barrier and walking quickly along the platform. And at that moment, too, Roger suddenly swept her into his arms and kissed her, hard and long, full on the lips. (To Be Continued)

Not 'Mine' But 'Ours' Says Judge of Wedding Gifts
Decatur, Ill., April 22 (AP)—Wedding presents, says Circuit Judge Martin E. Northland, are not the sole property of the wife.
Taking issue with some etiquette authorities, Judge Northland denied the claim of Mrs. Edith Greenberg to $550 worth of wedding presents. She asked them yesterday as she obtained a divorce from William Greenberg, Decatur merchant, on grounds of desertion.
Judge Northland commented that an authority on etiquette said wedding gifts belong to the wife, "but she cannot be accepted as a legal authority." He ruled the $550 worth of presents belonged to both husband and wife.

DOROTHY DIX Women and Their Age

It is a well-known fact that women who are models of veracity, and who would go to the stake rather than tell an untruth about anything else in the world, will falsify their age. Why they should make such a mystery of their ages is one of the peculiarities of the feminine psychology that nobody can explain. It is just that way.

The one secret that every woman can keep is her age. The blabber who talks on and on forever as ceaselessly as the babbling brook always stops short of blabbing one thing, and that is how old she is. A woman will confide to you the whole story of her past life. She will tell you about her lovers, her husbands, her divorces, her children, all of her family secrets, but she will never tell you her age unless she is under 20 or past 80. What lies between is silence.

Clothing Is Donated for Cripples

This is quite right. It is nobody's business how many candles she is entitled to have on her birthday cake. Her age is her own affair, and if she gets any comfort in thinking she looks a perfect 25, when anybody can see she is a good 80, Heaven knows she is entitled to it.

Bobby Locke Wins Carolinas Open Tournament Title

Southern Pines, N. C., April 22 —(AP)—Bobby Locke of Johannesburg, South Africa, held title today to the Carolinas Open golf championship, repeating where he started in this country last year.

The ruddy-cheeked Afrikaner nosed out Johnny Palmer of Badin, N. C., by a single stroke in the 36-hole finals, posting a 79 for a 271 total over the 72-hole route. Locke pulled down $350 first place money for his 64-67-71-69 tour over the 6,661-yard, mid-Pines course.

Locke's 271 was a new record for the Carolinas Open.

Cardinals Off to Good Start Leading Loop

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

This is definitely a new year for Eddie Dyer and his St. Louis Cardinals.

Just a year ago today, Dyer's Redbirds were in the midst of one of their worst early season slumps. A heavy favorite to retain the championship they won in 1946, the Cardinals were in fourth place and dropped nine straight games. As it turned out, the Cards lost the flag then and there.

But the picture is much brighter this year, thanks to some splendid pitching by Murry Dickson and George Munger.

Dickson gave up 10 hits on Tuesday's opener, but wound up with a 4-0 shutout. Munger allowed only three hits yesterday and registered a 5-2 victory over the Cincinnati Reds. The two triumphs shoved the Cards into a first place tie with the Philadelphia Phils.

Ben Chapman's Phillies made a two in two game, beating the Braves, taking yesterday's home 4-3 in 13 innings. A pair of walks, Granville Hammer's long fly produced the winning tally.

Bill Voiselle was yanked for a pinch hitter after the inning. Emil Coleman's orch. M. 10:55 Mutual Reports the News 11:00 Sign Off

Compromise on Air Force Appears Near

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON
Washington, April 22 (AP)—The administration said a "bargain" air power compromise before Congress today aimed at giving the country 11 more fighting groups at a cost of $491,000,000.

Secretary of Defense Forrestal whipped up the proposal in a fresh effort to keep the Senate from following the lead of the House in insisting on a full 70-group air force.

Forrestal's plan calls for a 66 group program and a three-year national defense outlay of $460,000,000,000.

Chairman Gurney (R-SD) of the Senate Armed Services Committee told a reporter he thinks Congress should accept the Forrestal offer.

He called his committee into another closed-door session today (9:30 a. m. CST) to try to win approval for the air force program and then turn to the equally hot issues of a temporary draft and universal military training.

Forrestal previously had insisted that a strengthened 55-group air force would be enough. Then some of his subordinates—Secretary of Air Symington and a group of air force generals—plunked for the 70-group program. It was rushed through the House as part of a money bill.

If only military considerations were involved, Forrestal said "the wisdom of this step cannot be questioned."

But, he added, the full 70-group plan would add another nine billion dollars to the original 11 billions asked by President Truman, instead of the extra three billions the administration has proposed since the president's January 1947 stop-Russia policy a month ago.

And it also might mean "allocations, rationing, price controls and a host of other restrictions," the

Proclamation

WHEREAS, The weather man reports that fair and warmer weather is apt to remain as a permanent visitor in the City of Hope, Arkansas, with a greater degree of permanence than has been exhibited in recent weeks, and

WHEREAS, the continued wearing of felt hats under balmy skies creates an excessive inconvenience to the male citizens of our city, and

WHEREAS, the budding trees and the abundance of grass encourages us to commence those activities traditionally celebrated in connection with springtime,

Now therefore I, Albert Pink, mayor of the City of Hope, do hereby proclaim Saturday, April 24, 1948, to be Straw Hat day in the City of Hope and do hereby call upon all male citizens in the City of Hope to put away felt hats for the summer and greet the dawn of April 24th by wearing strawhats.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the great Seal of the City of Hope this 21st day of April 1948.

Democracies' Morale Given Tremendous Boost by Their Victory Over Italian Reds

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The victory of the anti-Communist forces in the Italian National election is giving a mighty lift to morale among the democracies in their fight against totalitarian communism.

This is particularly true of western Europe, across portions of which the shadow of communism has been striking heavily. The reaction has been immediate and enthusiastic. The London Daily Express says the election is "the latest and most spectacular phase of the swing to the right which is now at work over western Europe," and continues to sum up the situation thus:

"Marshall aid played a big part in it but even if there had been no Marshall aid, (Premier) de Gasperi's (Christian) Democratic party would still have won. They would have won because Italy was asked to choose between the Democratic outlook of the west and the authoritarian communism of the east."

From Jacob Kaiser, head of the Christian Democrats in Berlin, comes a somewhat similar view. He declares that the outcome of the election "confirms that no nation in this world voluntarily will choose dictatorship when given a free, democratic election."

All the evidence at hand since Bolshevism came to power in Russia in 1917 supports Kaiser's view. The whole history of communism during the past generation is a story of an ism being thrust on unwilling peoples by trickery and force. There isn't a single one of Moscow's satellites in eastern Europe which would have accepted communism if the people had been allowed a free vote. Apropos of this thought Winston Churchill describes the Italian elections as "an historic event" and adds:

"Italy now regains her place in the ranks of the principal powers of Europe instead of being—like so many unhappy countries—made to live in the cage with the bear."

Well, where do we go from here? Since Italian deputies are elected for five years, and senators for six, the assumption is that there will be an anti-Communist government in power until 1953—barring a rebellion. Within that period Italy must consolidate her democracy, and contribute to the general welfare of democracy in western Europe.

What this means is well summed up by the London Times, which says the victorious Christian Democrats must now make good their claims "that they can give Italy by constitutional means an economic and social rebirth that the Communists held out as a sequel to revolution."

That's the answer for Italy—and it's the answer for every country which is threatened with the Red plague.

Communism drives its entering wedges by preying on distress and discontent. The war plowed the ground for communism by creating chaotic conditions in many countries. Privation, including stark hunger, has been thrust upon numerous peoples—and when folk are hungry they think with their stomachs. They are ready to gamble on anything which may produce food.

So the democracies must demonstrate that they have something concrete which will take the place of the Red promises. And that is true not only for the countries where there is actual distress but in the more prosperous lands where there still is discontent because of economic and social conditions.

FIRST PLANNED CAPITAL

The United States, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica, was the first nation in the world to plan a capital—Washington, D.C.—exclusively for its seat of government.

A new plastic made from oil and sand can be used to keep bread and cake from sticking to the pan. The new glaze is a silicon compound spread on the inside of the pan in place of grease.

Cabinet officer declared. Ten of the new groups would use modernized versions of the four-engine B-29 bombers which were used with great success against Japan.

The 11th new group would be made up of fighters.

Forrestal said his new plan calls for 53,000 additional men and officers for the regular Air Force but only 8,000 additional for the Army, the Navy and Marines would be unchanged from previous estimates. If approved, the authorized strength would be: Air Force, 453,000; Navy and Marines, 552,000 and Army, 790,000.

Gurney said the expanded Air Force plan would give this country "striking power now."

Thompson in Campaign for Governor

Little Rock, April 22 (AP)—Horace E. Thompson has openly joined the growing list of Arkansas gubernatorial aspirants, adding to prospects that the race will be one of the state's hardest fought political battles of all time.

He resigned as internal revenue collector for Arkansas to become candidate No. 9 for the election, equivalent Democratic nomination.

Thompson said he would discuss "all the issues" during his campaign but promised "courteous, efficient, progressive operation of all the departments of state government" if elected.

Thompson's announcement last night was accompanied by statements by U. S. Senators John L. McClellan and J. W. Fulbright denying reports that they would support his candidacy. Both said they would maintain a hands-off policy in the governor's race.

The deadline for becoming a candidate in the democratic primaries of this summer is noon next Wednesday, and others are regarded likely to enter the gubernatorial free-for-all. Governor Laney has announced he will not seek reelection.

Thompson, born in Hot Springs county, is a veteran of world war one and a graduate of the University of Arkansas. In addition to his most as internal revenue collector, he has served as state director of the former Farm Security Administration, assistant director of the Arkansas Agricultural Extension Service and president of Arkansas State College, Jonesboro.

He also was south regional administrative officer in charge of crop insurance for the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Sen. McClellan, in a formal statement at Washington, said:

"Mr. Thompson is not my candidate for governor. I have no candidate for that or any other office except my candidacy for re-election to the United States Senate."

Sen. Fulbright told a Washington reporter:

"I intend to take no part in the governorship election. That is entirely up to the people of Arkansas."

LARGEST FIELD IN YEARS

Little Rock, April 22 (AP)—The contest for Arkansas governor apparently will have the largest starting field in at least a dozen years when the ticket closes next Wednesday.

Nine candidates have announced, and of this number five have paid their ballot fee. At least one more announcement seems probable.

Not since 1936 has there been a comparable entry list. That year an unusual situation developed. Ten candidates qualified by paying their ballot fee, but before the democratic primary—it was before there was a double primary system—exactly half had dropped out.

Carl E. Bailey was the successful candidate. Others in at the finish were Ed F. McDonald, Robert A. Cook, Tom J. Terral and Howard Reed.

In no election year since 1936 has there been more than four candidates.

Men Turn Pale at Sight of the New Fashions for Them

Los Angeles, April 22 (AP)—Aho, men! Man your battle stations! The clothes designers are about to unload a fashion phase.

In a preview for the press, the custom tailors and designers broke out such stuff as this—

Aqua blue tuxedos; sports coats padded at the shoulder to make you look like a weight lifter; such spatswear combinations as moss green slacks with dark green coat; business suits of black and white district clocks with gold over-blaid; smoke white camel's hair topcoats and Earl gray double-breasted vests.

The designers are going to show all this and more tonight to 400 influential clothing erectors. Sorta spreading the ideas around, as it were.

Homes of the future may be heated by a new radiant heating panel that heats from the ceiling. The panels are heated by a ductive rubber resistance element.

The New Look Is Looking Too Far Says First Looker

New York, April 21 (AP)—The man who created the "new look" for women says other dress designers are carrying the thing "too far."

Christian Dior, the Paris designer credited with starting the "new look" fashion, said on his arrival from France yesterday he was not in favor of dresses that hang to the ground "for general wear."

A reporter asked Dior if short skirts would make a comeback. He threw up his hands and said: "I hope not, ever!"

South Africa's Golf Star Says Pros Refused Him

St. Louis, April 22 (AP)—The Post-Dispatch quoted Bobby Locke today as saying he had tried to join the U. S. Professional Golfers Association and been turned down. P.G.A. officials have put it the other way—that the South African star was invited to membership but declined.

The Post-Dispatch telephoned Locke at Southern Pines, N. C., checking up on why he is not to play in the P.G.A. tournament here starting May 19.

George Snelitzer, a P.G.A. executive, said here last week that Locke "was offered a chance to join the American organization but apparently he felt it wasn't the thing to do."

"That's not true," Locke countered. "I applied, and I was told that I would not be eligible until I had become a resident of this country. He has a visitor's visa."

Scientists have identified a third of a million kinds of plants.

Taft Says GOP Policy Liberal One

Ashtabula, O., April 21 —(AP)—Ohio Senator Robert A. Taft opened his northeast Ohio campaign tour today with a fibe at Harold E. Stassen's speechmaking. He also challenged the former Minnesota governor's claims to being more liberal than Taft.

Said the senator at a breakfast meeting of Republican followers: "All my opponent has to do is go around making speeches about what he would do if he were president. It sounds very nice to anyone listening to him. But it isn't so easy to work out his proposals in practice."

"I've noticed my opponent going about the country claiming he is more liberal than I am. I'd like to know in what respect he's more liberal — more liberal in giving money to Europe, perhaps."

"New Dealism still is the orthodox view in Washington," he said. "It has impregnated every group down there."

The Republicans, said Taft, have eliminated all controls they could possibly eliminate, reduced expenditures and taxes, checked rent controls, restored a balance in labor relations, and have put welfare measures into the legislative hopper.

They said 1,200 were killed in Bogota, the capital, and 300 outside the city when mobs ran riot after the assassination of Liberal Leader Jorge Eliecer Gaitan.

Authorities in Bogota estimated 2,500 persons were injured. Damage ran into the millions of dollars.

Little Rock Man Elected Head of Knights Templar

Little Rock, April 21 —(AP)—Willard D. Billingsley of Little Rock is new head of the Knights Templar in Arkansas.

He was chosen grand commander at the concluding session of the two-day 70th annual convocation. Others new officers include: L. W. Williams of Osceola, Deputy grand commander; Fred Duke of Fort Smith, Grand Gracioso; O. E. Nichol of Hot Springs, Grand Captain General; J. Miles Roberts of Pine Bluff, Grand Senior Warden; Charles H. Cross of Fayetteville, Grand Standard Bearer; John M. States of Jonesboro, Grand Sword Bearer; John W. Valle of Fort Smith, Grand Warden; and C. L. Newsome of El Dorado, Grand Captain of the guard.

Negro Group to Oppose Cadicals

Little Rock, April 21 —(AP)—A Negro church leader here announced today his group is undertaking a south-wide campaign in opposition to announced plans of civil disobedience against "any Jim Crow draft or universal military training law."

E. J. Cain, bishop of the Negro Church of God district embracing Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas, said the purpose of his group's movement is to "educate the Negro against this type of propaganda."

He said he was referring to plans disclosed before a House Committee in Washington by President A. Philip Randolph of the Pullman Porters' Union and Grand Reynolds, New York.

Bishop Cain said the first of the series of meetings is planned for Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas, Orange, Tex. It is to open shortly under the supervision of Cain's secretary, the Rev. W. B. Luster.

Sawyer Named Secretary of Commerce

Washington, April 22 —(AP)—President Truman today nominated Arthur Hays Sulzberger, publisher of the New York Times, to be secretary of commerce.

Mr. Truman offered the commerce post to Sawyer by long distance telephone last night after Harriman agreed to give up that position to take over the ERF job.

Ross said Sawyer telephoned Mr. Truman today from his home at Cincinnati to accept the appointment.

The 61-year-old Cincinnati lawyer has been a frequent White House caller.

The same administration authorities said Mr. Truman also hopes to decide on a new secretary of agriculture before Clinton P. Anderson steps out next month to run for the Democratic senatorial nomination in New Mexico.

They said the president has given no indication whom he has in mind for that cabinet job.

A member of the Cincinnati city council from 1911 to 1915, Sawyer served as lieutenant governor in 1938 and as Democratic national committeeman from 1936 to 1944. He was ambassador to Belgium in 1944 and 1945. In that capacity, he met Mr. Truman at Antwerp in 1945 when the chief executive arrived here en route to the Potsdam "Big Three" conference.

Sawyer enlisted in the first world war and was discharged with the rank of major after service with the AEF.

Some observers saw in the selection of Sawyer an effort on the part of the president to strengthen the cabinet politically in advance of the 1948 campaign.

There is word, too, that Samuel I. Rosenman, former special counsel to President Franklin D. Roosevelt, and later to Mr. Truman, will be enlisted to help with White House speechwriting.

In what capacity Rosenman might play his part apparently has not been decided. In view of his New York law practice, there is no indication that he will take an official post.

Clark M. Clifford is due to continue as special counsel to the president, barring any sudden change in plans, officials said.

County H. D. Council in Session Here

The Hempstead County Council of Home Demonstration Clubs met in an all-day meeting in the City Hall in Hope, Tuesday, April 20. Mrs. Grace Buckabee, Route 1, Hope, Council President, presided over the meeting. Mrs. Howard Collier, Route 2, Hope, song leader, led the group in singing "America," accompanied by Mrs. Troy Greenlee, Route 2, Hope at the piano.

Mrs. J. E. Williams, Route 4, Hope, past secretary, read minutes and called roll. Thirteen clubs with 62 members were present.

During the business session of the meeting, the members voted that the council pay $100 into the 4-H club Building Fund to help furnish the living room in honor of Miss Ella Posey, retired District Agent from Southwest District. Mrs. J. E. McWilliams, Hope, of the Springs club was appointed chairman of the concession stand to be operated at the Experiment Station in conjunction with the Adult Visiting Day to be held June 25.

The clubs voted that each club sell at least $5.00 worth of tickets to the upholstered chair to be given away on June 25 at the Visiting Day Program. Tickets will sell at 10 cents a ticket. This chair will be upholstered as a public demonstration on May 4 in the City Hall at 1:30 p.m.

Plans for National Home Demonstration Club Week were made. National Home Demonstration Club Week will be observed this year from May 2 to May 8.

Tri-State Golf Tourney Opens at Shreveport

Shreveport, La., April 22 —(AP)—Qualifying rounds in the Arkansas-Louisiana-Texas golf tournament will get under way at the Shreveport Country club today with Bobby Reigel of Houston and Bud Timbrook of Louisiana State University sharing the spotlight. Reigel, a former Walker Cup player, and former Texas amateur champion, is the leading contender for Timbrook's crown. The L.S.U. star won the tournament last year.

Robert McLean Is Re-elected as the President of AP

New York, April 21 —(AP)—Robert M. Leach, president of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin, was re-elected president of the Associated Press yesterday.

Other officers elected by the Board of Directors were: E. M. Dealey, of the Dallas (Texas) Morning News, first vice president; and Buel W. Hudson of the Wisconsin (R.I.) Evening Call, second vice president.

Lloyd Stratton was re-elected secretary and Robert Booth, treasurer.

Kent Cooper will continue as executive director and general manager.

FITES FOR SENATE

Little Rock, April 21 —(AP)—Thomas J. Carter of Evening Shade today filed his corrupt practices pledge as a candidate for state senator from the 19th district.

He will oppose Eggle Street, Cave City and S. L. Richardson, Walnut Ridge, who filed previously.

The incumbent, Dr. J. E. Smith of Reyno, has not filed.

The 19th district is composed of Sharp, Lawrence and Randolph counties.

MARATHON by GOODYEAR
"IT RUNS AND RUNS AND RUNS"

Marathon — the famous money saving tire is back in the Goodyear line — and a better "buy" than ever! You get the economy, long mileage and safety — the extra value for your dollars that made Marathon the favorite of millions of motorists before the war... added to this — more and stronger cords in the rugged tire body give the new Marathon even greater protection against tire failure. Stop in today and trade your worn tires for new Marathons — the money saving low price tire that has these features...

LONG WEAR — New specially treated cords and newly compounded rubber make Marathon the tire that "runs and runs and runs".

NON-SKID SAFETY — Those famous Goodyear diamond blocks really grip the road. You get safer, quicker stops — especially on wet, skiddy roads.

"COMPACTING TREAD" — Inflation forces the sidewalls out, compacts the tread. This reduces tread wear, punctures, bruises and breaks.

For a really sensational "buy" in tires, see us for Marathons today! And remember "new tubes save tires".

Red-Stripped Plant Making Comeback

BY EDWIN A. SHANKE
AP Newsfeatures

Jena, Soviet Zone, Germany. — The comeback of the huge Carl Zeiss optical works which was dismantled by the Russians for reparations a year ago demonstrates how industrious Germans can rebuild their shattered industry even under the handicap of raw material shortages.

A year ago the Zeiss plant in the hills of the Thuringian forest was left 94 per cent stripped. Machines, electric wiring, even elevators and sanitation facilities, were removed. Today, Zeiss production is up to 12 per cent of prewar capacity, Hugo Schrade, one of the company's three directors, said.

"Now, that rebuilding is in full swing, production will increase as we go along," he added. Dismantling left Zeiss with six per cent of its former equipment, or 573 machines scattered through acres of plant. By the end of 1947, Zeiss again had 1,220 machines as against a prewar layout of 10,000. Part of them were acquired through barter. Others were built. Two hundred and fifty tons of iron were obtained from the western ones of Germany in the last quarter of 1947 in return for a million marks worth of optical goods.

More than 6,500 employees are back at their workbenches. Before the war the company employed 11,000. "The Russians have given us the go-ahead on full production except the manufacture of topographical and other measuring instruments," Schrade said. "The photo lens department of Zeiss already is back to 80 per cent of prewar production."

Part of the Zeiss production goes to reparations at a rate still to be fixed by the Russians, Schrade said.

Boxer Dies of Injury in Milwaukee

Milwaukee, April 22 — (P) — Jackie Darthard, 19-year-old Kansas City middleweight boxer, who collapsed during a bout here last night, died today.

Darthard was unable to answer the bell for the seventh round of a bout with Bert Lytell, of Fresno, Calif. He had absorbed a severe beating in the third and sixth rounds.

A brain operation was performed on Darthard several hours after the bout. Dr. Harry Maxwell said the purpose of the operation was to remove a blood clot on the left side of the head between the brain and brain tissues. Darthard was in the operating room about an hour. He died shortly before 9 o'clock this morning without regaining consciousness.

The surgeon said the blood clot was very large and so close to the brain that Darthard showed only temporary improvement after the operation. Dr. Maxwell described it as an acute subdural hematoma. It was the first fatality in Milwaukee boxing circles in about 20 years.

Dr. A. J. Murphy, Wisconsin state athletic commission physician, said Darthard's injuries were produced by blows to the head. Darthard was knocked down twice in the third round for counts of four and nine. He stayed away from Lytell for the next two rounds but was trapped in his own corner in the sixth round and hammered with jolting rights to the jaw.

He fell off the stool between rounds and his seconds called for a physician. He was carried from the ring on a stretcher and rushed to county emergency hospital. Lytell was in tears as he left the ring. He spent several hours at the hospital.

It was the second bout between Darthard and Lytell. They boxed to a draw decision two months ago. Both men are Negroes. Meanwhile, a police investigation of the contest was underway. Two men identified by police as Darthard's managers were questioned. Detective Lt. Charles Nowakowski said they are Arrington Klice, 39, and Jordan Davis Jr., 27, both of Kansas City. He said no charges had been made against either.

Milwaukee, April 22 — (P) — Jackie Darthard, 19-year-old middleweight boxer who collapsed in the ring last night after a severe beating from Bert Lytell, was in critical condition in Milwaukee county emergency hospital today.

Hospital spokesmen said blood clots had been removed from the left side of the young fighter's head between the brain and brain tissues. They reported his condition "critical."

Darthard, Arkansas City fighter, had been brought to the hospital unconscious after he was carried from the ring in a stretcher. He fell from his stool at the end of six rounds of his scheduled 10-round main event bout with Lytell.

The Fresno, Calif., middleweight, rated third in his division by the National Boxing Association, had administered a sound beating to Darthard in the third and sixth rounds and held a wide margin. It was their second bout—they boxed to a draw decision two months ago.

Meanwhile, police stepped into the investigation and principals in the bout were seized for questioning. Two men identified by police as Darthard's managers were reported to have been carrying concealed weapons. Lytell, who is 23, and his manager, Sam Aaronson, of Brooklyn, also were questioned by police.

Detective Lt. Charles Nowakowski said that one of Darthard's managers, Arrington Klice, 39, of Kansas City, was carrying a gun when he was brought to the detective bureau. Earlier, Detective Lt. John Zilvay said Jordan Davis, Jr., 27, also of Kansas City, and co-manager of Darthard was

Iron Curtain's Westward March Stalled in Italy

Washington, April 21 — (AP) — House Speaker Martin (R-Mass.) said today "the westward march of the iron curtain has been stalled," by the "overwhelming anti-Communist victory in Italy."

Martin credited Americans of Italian origin with helping materially in the triumph of anti-Communist forces in Italy's elections. "They sent several millions of letters, cables and messages to their native land," he said in a statement.

"These appeals were persuasive and effective." "Now that the victory is complete, the efforts should not cease."

He suggested sending "a little message of thanks." "It would be a wonderful good will contribution," he said.

It has been estimated that Americans put more than ten times as much money into gambling machines in 1941 as they did in 1920.

found to be carrying a concealed weapon. Police said no formal charge had been placed against Klice and Davis. Davis was quoted as saying he carried the weapon for protection "because he expected to be carrying a great deal of money with him after the fight."

Dr. A. J. Murphy, boxing commission physician, said Darthard suffered a possible brain hemorrhage from blows to the head. Darthard was floored twice in the third round, taking counts of four and nine. He withstood Lytell's attack in the fourth and fifth rounds but near the end of the sixth Lytell hammered a jolting right to Darthard's jaw. Darthard, who weighed 169 1-2 pounds to 160 1-4 for Lytell, survived the round but as his seconds worked on him he fell from his stool.

Darthard had been boxing professionally about two years and in 28 bouts he had lost only one decision—to Mickey Savage of St. Louis in four rounds. More than half of his wins were by knockouts.

Black Widow Can Fool the Doctors

By Frank Carey
Associated Press Science Reporter
Washington — Surgeons have sometimes been fooled by the bite of the Black Widow spider.

The excruciating pain in the abdomen produced by the bite of the venomous "widow" has at times been mistaken for the pain of some organic ailment, says Lieut. (JG) Dallas E. Billman in the "Naval Medical Bulletin."

Some victims of the Black Widow are subjected to needless operations, he says, as a result of diagnosis of acute appendicitis or ruptured.

"The excruciating abdominal pain renders the patient willing to submit to any surgical procedure which he believes will relieve his pain," Dr. Billman adds.

He recommends that doctors always consider the possibility of "Black Widow" bite in case of acute abdominal pain, and that close attention be paid to possible heart effects in proven cases of such bites.

"More of these cases will probably be encountered in the future with greater frequency," he predicts, citing a report of a group of doctors, made in 1936, which said the Black Widow is greatly increasing in number and is invading large cities.

Dr. Billman says research shows that the venom of the female is 15 times as potent as the venom of the rattlesnake.

The female spiders destroy the smaller males soon after mating. Male "Black Widows" can bite, but their bite is not dangerous.

The "Black Widow" also is called the "hour-glass spider," from a marking shaped like an hour-glass on their bellies.

The Loves and Liver of a Grayfish

AP Newsfeatures

Washington—The sex life of the grayfish shark has shed light upon a major source of vitamin A.

Two western scientists found that the vitamin A content of oil from the grayfish liver is correlated to the sex, sexual maturity and length of the fish.

The male begins to mature early, and as he does the vitamin A potency of his liver oil shoots upward. By the time he's 36 inches long his liver has four and a half times as much vitamin A as does that of an immature female the same length.

F. Bruce Sanford, Fish and Wildlife Service chemist at Seattle, and Kelshaw Bonham, biologist for the Washington State Department of Fisheries, said in an article in the government publication "Commercial Fisheries Review."

Only 20 to 30 per cent of the liver's weight in the smallest grayfish is oil. At commercial size or 30 inches, the liver is more than 60 per cent oil, and with continued growth this increases to 75 per cent.

Most female grayfish mature around the length of 40 inches. Then the vitamin A potency of liver oil starts increasing rapidly, too, in the fish that continue to increase in length.

Sanford and Bonham said the

Pleasant Foods of Week Are Listed

Celery, cabbage and lettuce claim top spots on the plentiful food list for the week of April 16-22, according to information Home Demonstration Agent Lorraine Blackwood received from the Production and Marketing Administration.

Apples and citrus fruits, particularly grapefruit and oranges, also are in good supply at southwest markets. Eggs and dressed poultry are relatively plentiful.

Processed foods—the Cabinet Food Committee asks homemakers to include on their shopping list frequently as part of the Voluntary Food Conservation Program—are canned grapefruit juice and segments, canned tomato products, and canned pumpkin.

Dried fruits are still in good supply, along with peanut butter, nuts, fish and honey, the Department of Agriculture reports.

Shanghai — China's 20-year-old movie industry is at its lowest ebb in its history and "this in itself is quite an achievement."

The quotation is that of a U. S. educated Chinese movie distributor who says "Chinese movies were never known for their quality."

The ebb, he adds, applies to quality of production, direction, acting, settings, scripts and anything else found around a movie lot.

He and the few independent producers who are left blame everything on government controls, high costs and the undeveloped tastes of most of the Chinese movie-going public.

China's Hollywood has largely come under state control since the end of the war. Officials of the Central Motion Picture Service, the government-controlled studio combine, admits there's room for improvement.

Indeed there is, replies one distributor. He thinks they might well begin their improvements by working over the scripts.

It is impossible to single out one particular theme from the hodgepodge of ideas that go into each Chinese movie, he says.

"You go to see a musical and if the director has no trained himself—you'll find murder, mystery, sex and politics thrown in for good measure."

"If the director hasn't restrained himself, you may also find a long declamation against the Chinese communists and scenes from World War II."

Spots Ships But Never Boards One

By BILL BALDWIN

AP Newsfeatures

Baltimore—Walter Gelbach's ship comes in every day, but he has yet to go aboard.

Gelbach, Baltimore's 70-year-old ship lookout spends eight hours a day thinking, talking and dreaming about ships.

From a shack on north point, at the harbor's entrance, he keeps tab on port traffic, notifying the maritime exchange in downtown Baltimore of each arrival.

This gives notice to customs men ship chandlers and agents that their ship will dock within the hour.

Gelbach's travels are by proxy aboard tramp steamers spotted through his marine glass and duly recorded in his log. He has never been to sea and never wants to go.

"My only trip on the water was years ago on an excursion boat across Chesapeake Bay," he says. "I'm not interested in going anywhere now."

Gelbach leads a snug life in his nine-foot hut atop an old concrete powder house overlooking the harbor, where "you can see anything that comes up the bay."

He goes through the day in a rocker by the window, warmed by a kerosene stove, keeping a lookout for tugs, steamers, barges and tows. Some 200 vessels move past his window each month.

Gelbach identifies each craft through a four-foot telescope trained on the harbor through one of the narrow slits cut in the walls of the shack.

Recording the time and the name or general description of the vessel in his log, Gelbach telephones the marine exchange.

The reason most ships don't radio news of their impending arrival is that many skippers do not recognize the spot. At night, when Gelbach is not on duty, ships may have to dock without much advance notice.

Young Patrick McCrary, son of actress Jinx Falkenberg and Tex McCrary, enjoys splashing in his new "wading pool" in the living room of his New York home. The new flexible plastic pond is meant for outdoor use, but offers a good way to get a "swim tan" in winter with the aid of sunlamp.

U. S. Divorce Rate Becoming Alarming

BY ADELAIDE KERR

AP Newsfeatures

In this country, "we pour billions into research of radio and atomic energy and neglect research on the prevention of divorce. Yet divorce is producing more human wreckage than bombs ever have."

The speaker was Evelyn Mills Duvall, executive secretary of the National Council on Family Relations. The Council, which has headquarters in Chicago, is clearing house for 3,000 teachers, doctors, psychologists and marriage counselors working on the problem of how to make marriage stick.

"Figures from the United States National Office of Vital Statistics show that in 1937 we had 1.9 divorces per thousand people and in 1946 there were 4.3 divorces per thousand people," Dr. Duvall said. "In less than a decade the figure more than doubled. In other countries divorce is increasing."

"The reason is that the family is in a state of transition. It has been catapulted out of the old situations which used to hold it stable and has not settled in new ones. In western civilization we are in the process of moving out of an old house into a new one and have not found ourselves. All the confusions of moving day are upon us."

Dr. Duvall, who recently led a marriage course at New York Town Hall, sketched some social changes which have made marriage and the family different than they were in grandmother's day.

"When I was a girl in upstate New York," she recalled, "No nice girl smoked, drank, petted, wore very sheer stockings or went out to dinner with a married man. My beau called for me with a horse and buggy. We rarely could get so far away that somebody did not know one of us. And even if they didn't recognize us, somebody would be sure to spot the horse. So we had to conduct ourselves accordingly. Mrs. Grundy behind the lace curtains was a very powerful force."

"Today my teen-age daughters can slip out of the door, into a car and in ten minutes be where nobody knows them. Other women travel around the world by air. Mrs. Grundy can't keep up with that pace. The old social controls that used to keep people in line are not there any more."

Dr. Duvall cited nine other important changes in family life including these: Millions have left the farm for the city. Families have grown much smaller and seek more diversion outside. Father no longer rules the family with a rod of iron. Millions of women earn their own living.

"In the midst of all these changes it is no wonder that the boat of family life has rocked and that many have split on the rock of divorce," she concluded. "On all sides we see the human wreckage that results—alcoholics, reckless drivers. Men and women so wrecked with emotional pain that they work badly. Yet we have done almost nothing to help them or prevent their repetition."

"We have a crying need of two things. The first is basic research. We need to delve into study on how to effect good adjustment between people and the disadjustment that leads to divorce. This would have to be done by universities and research centers. Millions should be spent on it."

"Then we should use the fruits of that research to educate the Joneses. Children should be given sex education and training on how to get along with others. Adolescents should be educated in boy and girl relationships. Young married people should be taught how to avoid the dangerous shoals. It that were done divorce figures would take a big drop."

"The beginning of both research and education in this field have already produced promising results. The task is enormous, but can be done if enough of us care enough about family life to invest in it."

Robbs, Ill.—This is the town that Robbs built.

Albert L. Robbs, now 74, started from scratch and raised a community in this southern Illinois Ozarkian hill country.

He is Robbs postmaster. He owns and operates a lumber yard, saw mill, feed mill, general store, restaurant and an automobile agency. He is also a director of the First National Bank at the Pope county housing authority.

Virtually every resident in this village of about 145 population depends on Robbs as a wage earner, or indirectly. Children attend a two year Robbs high school which he built.

Robbs started the village by building a structure to house the motor agency and a dwelling for himself. As others came he erected more homes until now he owns all but two or three of Robbs' 45 homes.

He owns more than 2,200 acres of land (and a section in Idaho he has never seen).

When the Illinois Central System decided to tap the area, Robbs says he "swung enough weight" to bring the tracks nearer to Robbs. The original contractor failed, he relates, so he put up a $10,000 deposit and finished the job himself at a $30,000 profit. Later he asked the road to build a switch to Robbs but the officials said no. Robbs built the track and the road later paid him for the job.

At 17 Robbs joined a threshing crew and saved $100 to buy a span of mules and a wagon. He used the mules as a down payment on a 120 acre farm, hired a man to care for the farm and toured the countryside selling household gadgets. With cash from this, he bought another farm. He expanded his household gadget sales by selling agent franchises and made more money. Meanwhile he bought and swapped stock.

He bought one flour and feed mill, kept it four years and sold it at a profit. He bought it back for $2,000 and sold it again, this time for $4,000. Thereafter he bought and sold the same mill three more times, profiting each time. He finally held onto it and moved it from Edgelyville to Robbs.

Robbs buys, sells or trades virtually anything. He's gained a reputation as a "square shooter."

Thousands of Deer Are Starving

By JANE EADS

Washington —The U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service says that thousands of deer all over the United States are starving to death.

The extreme weather has made the situation worse, but the snows of winter are not so much the cause as the fact that there are just too many deer.

There are more than 100 U. S. herds of deer. Their ranges vary in size from a small refuge to half a state. Since the beginning of the century they have pyramided their numbers to the point where they present a problem.

In addition to starvation and malnutrition, in many places they have seriously menaced the range.

Wildlife experts say 47 states have deer, and 30 of these have trouble of some sort. Kansas is the only deerless state. The Southeast is the only region without deer troubles.

Wisconsin is one of the biggest trouble spots. Utah and parts of Nevada are others.

The U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service estimates there are about 6,340,000 deer.

Aldo Leopold, professor of Wildlife Management, University of Wisconsin, and a member of the Wisconsin State Conservation Commission, says in an article in "Wildlife Management" magazine that nearly half are known to have shown starvation. And nearly half are known to have been reduced by legalized killing of females.

Professor Leopold says:

1. Delay in reduction of overpopulated deer ranges means ultimate shrinkage of both the herd and the range.
  2. Reduction is the only remedy. Nothing else works.
  3. To accomplish the reduction, female deer must be killed.
- Hunters have long been educated to kill just the buck deer, but some states—such as Maine and New Hampshire—have begun killing the female and young deer as well. Their deer populations are now pretty stable.
- Many people think if they kill the female deer it will spoil their hunting in the seasons to follow, but wildlife officials point out the deer will die off anyway and in larger numbers where there isn't enough food to go around.
- Starvation occurs because the deer kill their natural food plants by overbrowsing. These are then replaced by plants of little or no value.
- The smaller deer starve first. Disease, parasites and killing of weakened animals by natural enemies accompany starvation.
- Mild winters, artificial feeding and "down tops" from logging often postpone, but never prevent, the ultimate shrinkage of both the herd and the range.
- When deer become too dense, there is no general breaking up a herd unless wild animals attack them. They simply become denser and eventually kill off their food plants and starve.

"This is what happened when one farmer used natural soda on his pasture. I hope his experience will help to fill your own pastures with good, deep grazing."

FARMER'S FORUM

"Before planting my fall and winter pasture mixtures of small grains and legumes in August, I applied 200 pounds of Chilean Nitrate per acre. My cattle are now knee-deep in luscious grazing that got the fertilizer, whereas growth was very skimpy on spots that were accidentally skipped. In the future no fall and winter pastures for me without proper fertilizer."
